Get Ready to Read!

Get Ready to Read! (GRTR!) is a national initiative to build the early literacy skills of preschool-age children. The initiative provides an easy-to-administer, research-based screening tool to early childhood educators, child care providers, and parents in order to help them prepare all children to learn to read and write.

GRTR!'s program vision is that all preschool children will have the skills they need to learn to read when they enter school. This screening tool is a part of an initiative to provide parents, educators, health-care professional with information to help build early literacy skills by integrating emergent literacy screening and learning activities into routine early childhood education, child-care and parenting practices.

Through Smart Start Georgia and United Way of Metro Atlanta training for this screening tool is available to your staff FREE of charge and also provides 2hrs of State Approved Training! Your staff will learn how to administer the screening tool and what type of activities they can do with children to improve their outcomes!
